150 Attend Las Vecinas April Showers Dance Last Week-End

By Mary Webb
FR 5-3051

The Las Vecinas swank "April Showers dance" was staged last Saturday evening at plush Portuguese Bend Club, with some 150 were present. Most appreciated was the excellent buffet supper served from 9 till 11. The menu offered a myriad of taste treats, on a luncheon plate were heaped salads, cold fish treats, pickles, olives, and other tempters while the dinner plate was piled high with spicy barbequed spareribs and tender bits of fried chicken, with potatoes au gratin and vegetables. Cake with ice cream and sherbert followed by heaps of coffee were served later. The Bill Beckmans, Bob Matsons, Lee Kendalls, Lee O'Malleys, Eugene Byrds, Claude Ferrels; and Don Stewarts who traveled south from their new residence in West Los Angeles, were there among others.

Mrs. W. R. Peer, 244 Avenida Atezada, entertained the Betty Mills Group at her home on Wednesday, April 13. The group is part of the Christian Women Fellowship of the South Bay Christian Church, and Mrs. Peer is president of the Fellowship. The occasion, was the monthly mission study and business meeting.

Present were Meses. Hiram Beam, Kermit Carpenter, Al Mabry, Edna A. Lureda, Hazel Stuevel, Fred Regnier, Mary Allen, Madeline Anderson, Ida Davidson. Visitors at the meeting were Meses. Warren Meyer, Gaullen Barrott, Homer Wellenman and H. E. Mackey. Cake and coffee were served.

In a Herald contest that put them in a brand new Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. George McBurney, of 123 Calle de Andalucia, entertained guests over the Easter holidays. They were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Clark and family of San Bernardino, and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Alves and family of Palmdale. Both Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Alves are sisters of Mrs. McBurney.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stites, of 424 Calle de Castellana, will be leaving their home about the end of next month. After a three-year residence here, their move will be to Santa Ana, where Stites has opened his title insurance offices.

The Stites have three children: Sidney Rae, 8½, Mark, 5½, and Terry, 2.

Celebrating her tenth birthday with a party at her home was Miss Patty Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Scott, 127 Via Monte de Oro. The party, held on Saturday, was staged in the downstairs rumpus and play room of her home.

Guests included Linda Showalter, Jill Webb, Judy Wurtz, Diane Augustin, and Ann Jones. Refreshments of cake and ice cream highlighted the party.

Other news of interest from the Scott home is that Miss Bernice Scott, sister of Lee Scott, off Stockton, spent her Saster vacation visiting them here.

Sympathies are being extended to Mrs. Donald Miller, of 305 Calle de Miramar, on the death of her husband, John W. Miller, who passed away on Sunday, April 10.

The family of H. K. "Bill" MacLeod, 408 Via Pasqual, is going through quite a session of illnesses. Young Meg MacLeod, 6, had the mumps, passing them on to sister Molly, 3. Then Meg came down with the measles. Meg's main regret, it was reported as she lay in her sick bed fully blossomed out with measles, was that she and her sister were unable to join the Easter parade. They both had new bonnets for the occasion, which will be kept nice and new till the two sisters are recovered.

Condolences are also being extended to the families of Don A. MacLeod, 119 Calle de Andalucia, and H. K. MacLeod, 49 Via Pasqual on the passing of their father, Hector Kenneth MacLeod, on Sunday, April 3, at Cedars of Lebanon hospital in Los Angeles. The elder MacLeod was a banker for many years in Hutchinson Kan., retiring to California in 1927. He was originally from Prince Edward Island, Canada, and has resided at the LA Athletic Club. The MacLeods report he spent three weeks in the hospital before passing away.

Rev. Paul Cox of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church officiated at the ceremonies held at West Kirk of Heather at Forest Lawn. Mr. MacLeod is survived by Mr. and Mrs. Don A. MacLeod and son, Monty, 16; and Mr. and Mrs. H. K. "Bill" MacLeod and daughters, Molly, 3, and Meg, 6, all of Torrance.

Scores of friends from all over Riviera bade farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Will Zens, and their family, when they moved from their home at 167 Via Los Miradores last Tuesday, bound for their new home in Miraloste. The Zens, together with children, have lived in this area for many years, being active in the Sportsmen's Club, Catholic Daughters, and other local organizations.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beckman, who have been living "high on the hog" for the past few weeks. Following his business trip to Chicago, Bill Beckman traveled to Seattle, where he attended an insurance company meeting there. Mrs. Beckman joined him a few days later, having taken the "Champagne flight" of Western Airlines to the northern city. The Beckmans stayed at the New Washington hotel while in Seattle, and report taking interesting side trips around Seattle while enjoying their stay there.
